DAY 3: Tuesday, November 4th

Hotel Palau Bellavista

RIDE 3

Medieval Villages – 90km / 400m

The journey will take you along coastal paths with views of the Mediterranean, passing through picturesque villages and typical agricultural landscapes of the Empordà. A highlight is the proximity to the ruins of Empúries, a fascinating historical site where Greeks and Romans left their mark. The route combines fast sections and easy forest tracks, offering a balanced experience of nature, culture, and a good cycling pace. An ideal day to connect with the land and enjoy pure cycling.

DAY 4: Wednesday, November 5th

Hotel Palau Bellavista

Half Pirinexus 121km / 500m

At the halfway point of the tour, we have a long but low-elevation route that, while lacking steep climbs, will require good physical endurance. We will pedal alongside the Ter River, passing through forests and charming villages. The mix of rural landscapes and natural areas makes the route varied and enjoyable. The highlight of the day comes when we approach the Mediterranean, where we can savor the sea breeze and stunning views before heading back. A true pleasure for gravel and long-distance route enthusiasts!

DAY 5: Thursday, November 6th

Hotel Palau Bellavista

Banyoles Loop 70Km / 600m

Today we have a shorter ride that allows us to recover from the previous day's challenging stage. The moderately difficult route features some technical sections but poses no major physical demands, making it perfect for enjoying the landscape at a leisurely pace. We will stop in Banyoles to admire its renowned lake, the largest in Catalonia, surrounded by nature and a peaceful atmosphere, ideal for a rest before continuing. A more relaxed day with just the right amount of adventure to finish the bike ride on a high note!

DAY 6: Friday, November 7th

Hotel Palau Bellavista

Guilleries Loop – 82Km / 1.010m

On the final day, we'll head inland, crossing the Guilleries massif, a mountainous area full of dense forests, dirt tracks, and secondary roads perfect for gravel bikes. The route offers a mix of challenging climbs and fast descents surrounded by nature. Halfway, we'll stop at Taverna del Subirà for a homemade lunch in a rustic setting, perfect for recharging before the final stretch. The day will be of medium difficulty, with technical sections and stunning views that make the effort worthwhile. An ideal end to a gravel adventure, combining sport, nature, and great food!
